3. Research, Consultancy and Extension

3.1 Initiatives of the IQAC in Sensitizing/Promoting Research Climate in the institution

IQAC promoted the research climate in the college while facilitating faculty members to identify and conduct research in newer and needed areas. One example can be given of the need assessment survey conducted in Shriji Ka Kheda village in Rajasthan to ascertain problems of women who had lost their husbands to silicosis as a result of working in the stone quarries.

By virtue of their position as field instructors many of the faculty members enjoy consultative status in the organisations they are associated with. Some of the faculty members are also members of the board of trustees in such organisations.

Members of the IQAC as well as other faculty members are members of ethics review committees of research institutes.

3.26 Major Activities during the year in the sphere of extension activities and Institutional Social Responsibility

Initiating field action projects (Extension Programs) to respond to specific social situations/ crisis has been a characteristic hallmark for the College of Social Work since its inception. Currently the College is running 6 extension and field action projects, a brief description of which is given below:

1) AROEHAN

AROEHAN, works with rural/ tribal people of Mokhada Taluka of Thane district on livelihood and governance issues. Its staff members are selected as Master Trainers at the state level for monitoring the implementation of NREGA. It also focuses on education of the girl child, women empowerment, agricultural productivity, watershed development and problems of child marriage and malnutrition.

2) Anubhav Mumbai

The project works with students and non student youth. Its primary objective is to create awareness on various social issues and make the youth responsible and sensitive to the problems faced by the people. During the year, the programmes covered 85 colleges of Mumbai University. Anubhav Mumbai collaborated with United Way Mumbai Helpline in spreading awareness about Hepatitis B and Hepatitis C. Nearly, 5000 youth were trained as health educators in the city of Mumbai to spread awareness among the masses.

3) CHIRAG

Community Health Initiative and Action Group (CHARAG) primarily works with people living with HIV/AIDS infected and affected families. Apart from providing treatment, referral, counselling and foster care services the project engages in capacity building activities for income generation.

4) SWAYAM

A Community Based Disaster Risk Management programme focuses on reducing vulnerability and enhancing capabilities of vulnerable communities/group by supporting the development of coping strategies to minimise the impact of disasters. By 2012, it has crossed the target of training 10,000 college and community youth, 604 police personnel, 143 railway porters, 314 municipal school teachers, 548 community health workers of Bombay Municipal Corporation and several others in various aspects of Disaster Management.

5) SAKSHAM

Saksham continued its training programmes and during the year 2011-12, 313 counsellors were trained from various organisations from Mumbai, and from the states of Karnataka, Goa and Maharashtra and a team of 75 experts conducted sessions during the training programs. This included 3 batches of Induction training for counsellors for 12 days of duration each and for 10 batches of refresher training for counsellors for duration of 6 days each.

6) Kandhamal Project

College has initiated this project to help the victims of communal violence that took place in 2008. This year, College undertook the second phase of monitoring of the shelter cum livelihood support programme for the survivors of the violence. Apart from these services, peace building among communities was a major objective of the Kandhamal project.

5. Student Support and Progression

5.1 Contribution of IQAC in enhancing awareness about Student Support Services

Under the leadership and guidance of IQAC, the college provides information to the students regarding various financial assistance schemes-loan/grants to students who are from poor socio-economic background. This year 34 students from ST/SC/OBC groups were provided financial support to meet their expenditures. College also provides interest – free educational loans to poor students who can repay the amount in easy instalments when they take up jobs after the completion of their academic programme.

Pre-admission counselling is provided to students from disadvantaged groups and minority communities. Information about the counselling services is given to the students in the beginning of every academic year, during the orientation programme.

5.2 Efforts made by the institution for tracking the progression

The graduating students are encouraged to keep in contact with the college as members of the alumni. The college does not have any formal method of tracking the students' progression. However, the college maintains records of transcripts / copies of migration certificates of students which indicate that several of them opt for higher studies.

6. Governance, Leadership and Management

6.1 State the Vision and Mission of the institution

The Vision Statement:

To contribute to the building up of a new social order in India based on human dignity and social justice. It is with a preferential option to work with the vulnerable and exploited groups in society towards their development and empowerment.

The College strives to relate the educational content of the courses to contemporary social reality such that the requisite knowledge, skills, attitudes and values are inculcated in students and they develop a keen sense of social responsibility and commitment to nation building.

As an academic institution, the College strives to build a cadre of professional social workers equipped with a keen intellectual ability to analyse the complexities of contemporary society and effectively intervene as catalysts of social change at multiple levels in society. In view of the changing social reality in the context of globalization, the College aims at creating among its students sensitivity to regional, national and global issues and a critical perspective about national and international dynamics affecting marginalized populations. The College also aims that this cadre of professionals shall build their life on a strong value foundation such as compassion, personal integrity, tolerance, moderation and respect towards self and others, to usher in a society where human rights, social justice and dignity are valued above all.

The Mission of the College:

The mission of the College is to build a cadre of qualified, committed personnel who will be trained to become aware of social ills so as to mitigate them and promote an egalitarian, participatory and democratic society. The College will develop dialogical and interactional training to disseminate information about social situations in India and other countries, and build values of social justice and human rights in classroom teaching and through field practice. The College, through innovative field action projects will demonstrate the complementarity of knowledge, skills and attitudes essential to professional social work. The College through all its programmes and projects will make a commitment to praxis and promote knowledge-building through an ongoing process of critical inquiry – in classroom teaching, in field action, in research and other extension work.

6.2 Does the Institution has a management Information System

The College keeps records of students' profile, attendance, field work records, workshops and seminars, scholarships, performance in internal and external evaluation, teachers' leave, research studies, assets and appraisals.

6.3 Quality improvement strategies adopted by the institution for each of the following:

6.3.1 Curriculum Development

Intense and thematic discussions were held among the faculty members with the support of external subject experts to review the curriculum for MSW program to be introduced from the academic year 2012-13. Many courses were added to the new syllabi to keep it relevant. New theoretical perspectives were also added to the existing courses.

6.3.2 Teaching and Learning

Several faculty members attended workshops/seminars on varied themes. Some were allowed to pursue their doctoral studies. Internet was made accessible to all and classrooms were fitted with relevant audio-visual aids. Attendance of students was closely monitored and the University norms were implemented.

6.3.3 Examination and Evaluation

Examination and evaluation systems were brought under the credit based semester grading system (CBSGS in BSW) in line with the changes introduced by the University in this regard.

6.3.4 Research and Development

Research unit of the college has undertaken various research studies commissioned by well known government and non-government organisations.

Accessibility to books and journals in the library has been enhanced through the introduction of new library software (SLIM 21) and indexing journal articles. Audio-visual unit has also added several equipments to its collection. 6.3.6 Human Resource Management 6.3.7 Faculty and Staff recruitment 6.3.8 Industry Interaction / Collaboration College approached industry/corporate for recruitment as well as for fundraising or sponsorship of field action projects. The Research Unit of the college collaborated with the industry for commissioned research. 6.3.9 Admission of Students College participates in career fares organised in the city to publicise about the programs. College courses are advertised in the local newspapers. Brochures are distributed among colleges/institutions.

Criterion - VII

7. Innovations and Best Practices

7.1 Innovations introduced during this academic year which have created a positive impact on the functioning of the institution. Give details.

Online Peace Education course was initiated in partnership with the Department of Peace and Conflict Studies, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies.

7.2 Provide the Action Taken Report (ATR) based on the plan of action decided upon at the beginning of the year

College continued its collaboration with three international universities. Two students from Ryerson University from Toronto, 5 students of HES-SO University, Sierre, Switzerland and 4 students from Caritas School of Social Work, Czech Republic successfully completed their internship with the help of College.

The partnership with the HES-SO University was continued and two Professors from HES-SO University, Switzerland, visited College and shared their experiences. Two faculty members of the College visited HES-SO University in the International Teaching Week

The course on Peace and Conflict Studies was initiated and two faculty members of the College visited Japan and Kashmir to finalise the syllabus.

Two Professors from Ryerson University, Toronto delivered lectures and conducted workshops on "Anti-Oppressive Social Work Practice for our teachers and students, as part of the ongoing collaboration with the College.

7.3 Give two Best Practices of the institution (please see the format in the NAAC Self-study Manuals)

Best Practice – 1

2011-2012

Title of the Practice

Collaborative Ventures with International Institutes for Exploring New Areas of Study

Goal

- i) To keep updated with the contemporary socio-political realities
- ii) To respond to newer areas of practice

The Context

The College has always endeavoured to respond to contemporary social realities either through updating theory, introducing new course, or through initiating work in newer practice areas. Its work during communal riots and attacks on religious minorities and during the terror attack on Mumbai are examples of this.

The aftermath of the American War against Terror and the growing Islamaphobia in the world, coupled with the volatile situation in Taliban-affected Afghanistan and Pakistan, has resulted in an unstable condition for the country especially in Jammu & Kashmir and the adjoining borders.

In view of the above, when College was approached by one of its alumnus Mr Kenji from Japan to consider evolving social work practice in conflict zones, College seized at the idea.

Mr Kenji visited the College and narrated his experiences of being part of the UN Peace-keeping force IN Afghanistan. He also explained his analysis of the impact that withdrawal of the American forces in Afghanistan would have on India and the neighbouring countries.

The Practice

To explore what could be the response of a social work college to the increasing geo-political conflicts in the Asian sub-continent, several meetings were held between faculty members of the College and their counterparts in the Global Campus Programme in the University of Foreign Studies, Tokyo, Japan.

Two faculty members went to Tokyo and with other members of Universities from Cambodia, Malaysia, Sri Lanka and the Philippines, brainstormed about the role of higher education institutes in spreading the message of peace in the world.

The result is the on-line course on Peace Studies that is being initiated simultaneously in five universities across the South Asian countries and is being conducted by the College in collaboration with the Global campus programme of Tokyo University. The other Universities involved in this venture are the Gadjah Mada University of Indonesia, the Pannasastra University of Cambodia, the University of Peradeniya, Sri Lanka and the Islamic University of Science and Technology, Srinagar, India.

Evidence of Success

The Peace and Conflict Studies Department of the Tokyo University of Foreign Studies, Japan has installed a Polycom Video-conferencing Unit in the College to begin the course from 2012. Two faculty members from the College visited Tokyo and Srinagar to develop the curriculum for the course.

2011-2012

Title of the Practice

Coaching Students from the Minority Communities and Reserved Categories for Competitive Exams

Goal

i) To widen the educational access for students from special groups

The Context

The College has always strived to reach out to students from the vulnerable sections of society in different ways. Like in the case of other students, College has also tried to encourage these students to take up higher studies and appear for competitive exams so that the country has at its service government officials who look at issues from a social work perspective- from a compassionate, justice-oriented, rights-based approach.

The Practice

Taking help of one of the Merged Schemes of the UGC XIth Plan Grant, the College initiated coaching classes for the SC/ST and Minority candidates who wished to appear for the Maharashtra Public Service Commission or The Union Public Service Commission exams.

The coaching is given free of charge and the lecturers are often officers who have retired from the Civil services.

Some of the students pursuing the undergraduate programme in the College also attend these classes as preparation for the exams at a later date. The Coaching classes also help the students in perspective-building.

Evidence of Success

Fifteen students who attended the classes (of a total 30) appeared for the MPSC and UPSC examinations this year.
