About the College

College of Social Work (Autonomous), Nirmala Niketan was founded in 1955 by a religious society of Catholic Christian women, known as The Daughters of the Heart of Mary, whose charism is to readily respond to felt needs of the people according to the signs of the times.

In the years following the independence of India, the founders discerned that the nation's struggle for development would be served not so much by material relief as by sensitive social concern and insightful committed action. Accordingly the College was founded to realize its vision. The Institute of Social Service Trust managed the College till 1978. Since 1978, the Nirmala Niketan Institute has become the parent body of the College.

The Institute awarded its own Diploma in Social Work, till 1965. The institute sought affiliation for MSW program from University of Bombay under the Faculty of Arts and got it in 1969. Realizing the need to respond to professional interventions at different levels, the College also started its university recognized three year BSW program in 1971. These programs are revised periodically in order to ensure that the educational content of the courses are relevant to the social reality of contemporary life.

The Government of Maharashtra recognized the College as a Catholic Christian Minority Institution in the year 1995.

The University recognized the college as a Doctoral research center and enabled students to enroll for Ph.D. program in social work from 1997.

The National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) constituted by the University Grants Commission, New Delhi, awarded the College the FIVE STAR status for its academic excellence in 2001.

On 31st March 2007, the same body, after further inspection and appraisal re-accredited the College of Social Work at the A+ level with an Institutional Score of 93 per cent. The College of Social Work, Nirmala Niketan is re-accredited (Third Cycle) by the National Accreditation and Assessment Cell (NAAC) with A Grade (3.53 CGPA out of 4) in May 2015 valid up to 2024.

On 12th Feb 2019 The University Grants Commission has conferred Autonomous Status to the College of Social Work, Nirmala Niketan for a period of ten years w.e.f 2019-2020 to 2028-2029.

NOTES TO CONTRIBUTORS

1 Criteria for acceptance of articles

The Journal welcomes articles, reports of research studies, field experiences and academic papers related to Social Work, Social Change, Social Research, Social Psychology, Social Policy and current topics having a bearing on Social Work Theory and Practice. Manuscripts are selected on the basis of relevance to Social Work education and practice, sound treatment of subject, clarity in presentation, methodology of research articles, implications for intervention, appropriateness of references, correct language and evidence of a high level of scholarship.

The author should send soft copies of the article to perspectivesnn@gmail.com. Which will be screened for plagiarism with a cost of Rs. 300/- for the article.

2 Declaration

Each article should be accompanied with a declaration by the authors stating that the article is original and has not been earlier published nor been submitted for publication elsewhere. If the article has already been published, then permission from the publishers for republishing has to be enclosed along with the manuscript.

3 Responsibility of Authors

Authors are solely responsible for the factual accuracy of their contributions. The author is responsible for obtaining permission to quote lengthy excerpts from previously published material.

Structure of Articles

A cover page indicating

- Title
- Author Name and Organizational Affiliations
- Corresponding Author Contact Details (postal address, telephone, email)
- Word Length (including abstract, keywords and references)

Abstract and Keywords

A second page including:

- Title of the paper
- An abstract of not more than 150 words

About the abstract - Each article should be summarized in an abstract of no more than 150 words. Abstracts must be structured, using four headings: Objective, Method, Results, and Conclusions. Format the abstract as a single paragraph in Italics. Abbreviations and citations NOT to be included in the abstract unless the study replicates or builds directly on another's work.

- Keywords upto five keywords.

Length and presentation

- The length of the article may range between 3000 and 5000 words, including the abstract, keywords and references but NOT including figures, or tables.
- All parts of the manuscript should be typewritten in MS Word typed in 12-point Times New Roman font, double-spaced, with margins of at least one inch on all sides. The pages should be numbered serially.
- Within the text of the article, no features should be included that enable the authorship to be identified (for example in page headers and footers or acknowledgements).

Citations, notes, and references

- All evidence based statements within the article MUST be supported with proper citations.
- Authors should ensure that ALL in-text citations have a corresponding reference entry and that each reference entry is cited in the text. Articles with citations but without reference list or vice-versa will NOT be accepted.
- Key statements in the article may be supported by the author with a logical explanation, the author's opinion, illustration, or in-text citation/paraphrasing of another author's work.
- Non-citation of others' written work amounts to plagiarism and, thereby, fraud. If plagiarism is identified, the article will not be accepted for publication.
- Only the last name of the author and the year of publication must be cited in the text.
- Notes, when necessary should be numbered continuously and should be printed as end notes. Use of footnotes should be avoided.
- References of both printed and electronic sources should be included at the end of the article in APA format.
- References should be listed in alphabetical order as follows:

Tables and Figures

- Tables, figures, graphs and diagrams (illustrations) should not be embedded in the text. Place tables and figures after the References section and indicate preferred placement point in the body of the manuscript such as "<Insert Table 1 here>".
 - A short descriptive title should appear above each table with a clear legend and any footnotes suitably identified below. All units must be included.
 - Figures and diagrams should be completely labelled, taking into account necessary size reduction and should be supplied in .gif, .jpg, or .png format with resolution 300 dpi or higher.
 - Ensure any colors used in figures will be distinct when converted to black and white for print version.
 - The word percent should replace the symbol '%' when it is used in the text, but the symbol '%' can be used in parentheses.

Review System

The review of the manuscript will be blind and impartial. Manuscripts are reviewed by the Editorial Board and peer-reviewers. Accepted manuscripts may be revised for clarity, organization and length. The article will be sent to authors via e-mail for correction and should be returned within seven days of receipt. Corrections and editing as suggested by the Editorial Board and peer-reviewers should be undertaken by the author and is not the responsibility of the publisher. The decision of the Editorial Board will be final and binding.

Publication of articles

The accepted articles are scheduled for publication in the chronological order in which they are received. The publication lag of an accepted article is generally one year. Each author gets a complimentary copy of the journal issue in which his/her article is printed.

Guidelines For Book Reviewers
