College of Social Work, Nirmala Niketan, Mumbai

Extra-curricular Committee

Background Information:

The development of skills amongst students is an important component of Institute's mission and objectives. At the College of Social Work, Nirmala Niketan opportunities for these are provided through various clubs and committees that are in operation. The manner in which they successfully organize various co-curricular activities is a proof of their skills at teamwork and leadership. College of Social Work, Nirmala Niketan has an active and vibrant students' community. In order to ensure that students take pro-active lead in organizing various literary, cultural and sports events both at the intra-collegiate and inter-collegiate level, a representative Extra-curricular Committee is constituted at the college level. This committee has elected representatives from each class as Class Representative and representative for each of the three committees that is literary, sports and cultural events. It is the coordinating body which symbolizes a consortium of smaller independent committees.

Extra-curricular committee also has faculty representatives (two) along with Principal and Administrator of CSWNN being part of the same committee who facilitate the functioning of the committee and guide students in day-to-day functioning of the committee in tandem with other stakeholders both within and outside the college.
