Summary of the Event:

The event started with tying of purple ribbons on the wrist of the students, faculty members and chief guest by Ms. Maya, Ms. Swati and Ms. Ichcha, WDC representative. This was followed by Welcome address by Dr. Saman Afroz, Convenor of WDC. Dr. Saman introduced the UN theme for the International Women’s Day which was “Digital: Innovation and technology for gender equality”. This was followed by a small video clip on DigitAll. After the video, everyone was requested to read aloud the pledge of the international women's day. This was followed by the address of the Principal CSWNN, Dr. Lidwin Dias. Dr. Lidwin warmly welcomed everyone to the program and shared the significance of equity in our life. Ms. Roshni Alphanso, faculty representative of WDC then welcomed and introduced chief guest Mr. Juran Lopes and Mr. Maxwell.

The celebration continued with the intra-class street play competition, hosted by Ms. Ashwati (MSW-2) where all the classes except MS-1 participated and through street play conveyed the message for gender equity in digital form. The aim of this competition was to know student's understanding regarding the theme and encourage their creativity in street play to share the message through the play. The students beautifully presented their expressions for friendship, love and infatuation through creative dance forms. Mr. Juran Lopes and Mr. Maxwell who were the judges and the chief guest for the event shared what they were able to observe from the street plays performed by the students and also facilitated students for their outstanding performance. He also shared his experiences as a street player and the significance of street play in awakening the society. During his talk he shared the highlights of each street play. Later, the event was further continued with the felicitation of the winner for poster making competition by Dr. Smita Bammidi and Dr. Vajjyantha Anand.

The winner for the poster making competition were as followed :

1. First Prize - Ms. Josana Adriel (MSW-1)
2. second prize - Ms. Anusha Kapatta (MSW-2)
3. Third prize - Ms. Manisha (MSW-2)

This was followed by the felicitation of street play competition winners with trophies by Mr. Juran Lopes and Mr. Maxwell who announced the winner for the competition.

The winners for the street play competition were as follows :

1. First winner : BSW - 2
2. Second winner : MSW - 2
3. Third winner : BSW - 1

The competition was a platform where issues like online abuse, gender discrimination in online form and their respective solutions were highlighted by the students through their creativity. The participants creatively used the music lyrics and reformed them into messages to convey. Besides performance, few students also contributed to the event by their singing performance. The snacks distribution was also done for the students present for the event. The event was concluded with the vote of thanks by Ms. Vaibhavi, WDC representative.

Outcome of the event:

Through this event, WDC was able to grab the attention of the audience on the online abuse and discrimination faced by women on digital platforms. Since, the street plays were not only highlighting the issue but also giving solutions. Hence, awareness of problems and solutions by the students were the core of the event. Student engagement and interest in the subject issue were ensured by their participation in the competition and the audience who attentively participated throughout the event.

Feedback:

The students enjoyed and actively participated in the event. The event got immense appreciation both from the teaching and non-teaching staff.
