

Memorial Service in Honour of Dr. Armaity Desai (1934-2025)

A visionary leader and a pioneer in social work education who shaped the field in India and beyond. As an institution builder and progressive reformer, she strengthened the foundations of social work practice and teaching in Nirmala Niketan Institute. Her life reflected an unwavering commitment as a champion of social justice and advocate for the marginalized. With a humanitarian spirit and ethical leadership, she left behind a legacy of excellence that continues to inspire.
