

Total Forms Filled by Parents

% of Parents filled the Feedback Form

Quality of Questions

- The questions in the parent feedback form were designed with clarity and purpose.
- Each item began with the prompt: "At the end of the program, my ward was able to..." followed by specific performance indicators.
- These items reflect the intended Program Outcomes (POs) and are phrased in language accessible to a non-academic audience, such as parents.
- There was a high level of alignment with the MSW program's educational objectives.

Key features of quality:

1. Clear alignment with POs.
2. Easy for parents to understand and respond to.
3. Avoidance of technical jargon.
4. Comprehensive in coverage across multiple social work competencies.

Beyond Graduation: Parent Insights

Majority of the responses were positive with most parents rated as "5 - Strongly Agree" or "4 - Agree."

Insights from the Responses

Perceived Strengths:

Advocacy for social justice
Professional ethics and values
Methodological application in practice

Areas Needing Attention:

Communication skills, possibly in interdisciplinary or field settings
Lifelong learning and continuing professional development

Suggestions and Areas for Improvement

- 1.Communicate student achievements in communication skills and lifelong learning more clearly (e.g., through newsletters or open houses).
- 2.Include qualitative questions to better understand parental concerns or suggestions.
- 3.Employ follow-up emails or sessions during parent meetings to improve participation.
- 4.Include modules or workshops aimed at communication skills and demonstrate continuous professional development pathways to students and parents.

Conclusion

- 1.The parent feedback indicates that the MSW program at Nirmala Niketan is largely successful in achieving its core Program Outcomes, especially in ethical practice, advocacy, and practical application.
- 2.Some attention is warranted toward enhancing perceived development in communication skills and lifelong learning.
- 3.This feedback will serve as a valuable input into continuous program improvement and accreditation documentation.
