A training program was organized by the Rotaract club in collaboration with the Center for promoting democracy on 21 December 2023. The program aimed to train students in registering, editing, and making changes to their voter IDs independently. This initiative will also enable students to offer services in their respective fieldwork organizations where they are placed.

The Rotaract Club of College of Social Work (Autonomous), Nirmala Niketan, organized a session titled 'Breaking the Silence around Sexuality,' facilitated by Ms. Akhina K from Akshara center. The session engaged students in participatory activities aimed at addressing stigmas and taboos surrounding sex. Concepts related to intimacy, sex, gender, toxic relationships, contraception, and safe sex practices were discussed. The resource person actively and openly addressed questions from many students, fostering an environment conducive to learning and open dialogue.
